National Educators for Restorative Practices Conference

What is the National Educators for Restorative Practices Conference.

The NEDRP Conference is an annual conference that brings together close to 1,400 educators from across the U.S. in order to gain valuable and practical skills around implementing Restorative Practices within our nation's schools.

Sponsors of NEDRP can expect a wide mix of Education and Restorative Justice attendees. NEDRP is known as the resource among the education community as the highest sought after education events of the year. Teachers and educators come to be restored, affirmed, informed, and inspired. Sponsors can expect a highly engaged and motivated audience, hungry for resources and ready to invest.

FEATURED SPEAKER, Michael Bonner

In his short 6 years as an educator Michael Bonner has national recognition of his positive and innovative educational approaches for children coping with adverse childhood experiences. A vision that has caught the attention of Ellen DeGeneres and resulted in national media coverage and thousands of dollars worth of grant money for his title 1 school. He understands that his students come to class each day with diverse backgrounds, strengths, needs, and challenges, and seeks to identify strategies to ensure the growth of their social, emotional, academic, and psychological needs. Because of his approach to education, students leave feeling a little more hopeful, challenged, inspired, and forever a part of Bonnerville!

Michael Bonner

A visionary K-12 educator and author who strives to create a positive mindset among all of his students.
